Dingle, Ireland

June 1 - 8, 2020

The trip begins at the Shannon airport where we will be met by a van for transport to Dingle. After the minimum of 10 reservations is reached, we will advise you to make your air travel reservations. Because flight delays can happen, it is safest to arrive a day before our trip start date. Very near the airport is the village of Bunratty where there are very nice B&Bs. After I receive your reservation I will send you information about making reservations there.

Trip Start: June 1, 2020 – Shannon, Ireland Airport – 10:30AM

Trip Finish: June 8, 2020 – Shannon Airport – 9:00AM

Trip Length: 8 days, 7 nights

Trip Cost: $3000 per person sharing a room

$3,400 for a single room

(Trip cost does not include airfare, meals indicated as on your own, beverages and tips.)

Day by Day Overview

Monday, June 1 – We'll meet at the Shannon airport or Bunratty. We will be met by a van for transport to Dingle (3 hours). We'll check in to our hotel midafternoon and meet our guide for a town walk.

- Lodging: Greenmount House- <http://www.greenmounthouse.ie/>
- Lunch together.
- Dinner together.

Tuesday, June 2 - Dunquin Wild Atlantic Way Walk - This is a lovely walk featuring a combination of coastal cliff walking and some old bog roads through the parish of Dun Chaoin, Ireland's most westerly parish and the heart of the west Kerry Gaeltacht. Expect lots of big skies and Atlantic and Blasket Island views. We will visit the fascinating Blasket Museum - recording the history of the Great Blasket Island, its residents, and their evacuation for good in 1954.

Distance: 6 miles; Elevation gain: 600'.

- Packed lunch; Dinner together.

Wednesday, June 3 - Loch an Duin Bronze age Valley- This walk back in time is a wonderful combination of Bronze Age archaeology and beautiful nature as we explore the valley of the fortified lake. This valley now deserted and covered in bog contains dwellings, rock art, burial tombs and pre bog field walls from over three thousand years ago. And there is also the waterfall of course! Some rough ground, no major ascents.

Distance: 6-7 miles; Elevation gain: 600'.

- Packed lunch; Dinner on your own.

Thursday, June 4 - Today is officially a “free day”. There will be an option of a short morning walk. You’re free in the afternoon to explore the town of Dingle.

- Lunch and Dinner on your own

Friday, June 5 - Cosan na Naomh - Following the old pilgrim path from Ventry beach to Gallarus Oratory. Dating back 1200 years the Gallarus Oratory, this small dry stone structure, is said to be the best preserved Christian Church in Ireland. The Pilgrims path is 17.7km long. We will walk approximately 10km, along quiet country roads, bothaireens (small roads) and farmland. This route is rich in archaeology from the early Christian period (5th - 12th century).

Distance: 6-7 miles; Elevation gain: 500’.

- Packed lunch; Dinner together.

Saturday, June 6 - We travel today to the western tip of the Dingle Peninsula to walk at Ballydavid Head, for one of the best walks in Kerry. We climb gently through moorland grass to reach a fine vantage point with expansive views of the surrounding hills, fields, mountains, sea and cliffs. This area could be described as a "photographer's paradise". We will take our time to take pictures, relax, and enjoy the views.

Distance 6 - 7 miles; Elevation gain 400’.

- Packed lunch; Dinner together

Sunday, June 7 – We will determine the activity for this day during our week. Options we will consider: a boat trip to the Blasket Islands, a hike on Connor Pass or Mt. Brandon. All of these options are weather dependent.

Monday, June 8 - After a light breakfast we will have an early departure for Shannon Airport to arrive there by 9:00AM.

Total Drive Time: about 3 hrs

Please Note: The above schedule is subject to change due to weather or other circumstances beyond our control.
