Day by Day Overview

Thursday, May 22 - Arrive in St. Davids, Wales, and check into St Davids Cross Hotel in the village center. (The bus stop is one block from the hotel.) Meet for drinks and trip preview with our guide Steve Jones in the hotel lounge at 6:30 followed by dinner in the hotel dining room.

- Lodging: St Davids Cross Hotel - <http://stdavidscrosshotel.co.uk/>
- Dinner together

Friday, May 23 - Walk from the Cross Hotel to St. Non's Well and onto the Coastal Path. Our walk takes us past the shrine to St. Non (St. David's mother) then on to Porthclais harbor-William the Conqueror came into this harbor. Along the way we round the most westerly point of Wales. We will be seeing beautiful sea views, seabirds, old copper mines and earthen forts. At St. Davids Lifeboat Station we will turn away from the sea and back toward St. Davids. About 8 miles today.

- Packed lunch.
- Dinner together.

Saturday, May 24 - A local bus this morning to Porthgain and a look around the artists' galleries there before a walk through the harbor village and onto the coast. We will have wonderful views to the west as we follow the path by old quarries, (Blue Lagoon at Aberiddy), badger sites, hill forts, and gull colonies; maybe even see some seals bobbing in the water. Our path takes us back into St. Davids. Today 9.0 miles.

- Packed lunch.
- Dinner on your own.

Sunday, May 25 - We will take the local bus to Pen-y-Cwm where we begin our short walk to join the coastal path. We have long views to the sea today and closer views of choughs and peregrine nest sites. Our lunch is at Solva Boat Club on the perfect harbor of Solva. You could take a little shopping time here if you choose and take the bus back into St. Davids or continuing on the coastal path— the afternoon walk follows a varied coastline taking us by an Iron Age hill fort, lime kilns, an old mill and maybe a surprise tea stop! Via Caerfai Bay, we are back into St. Davids. Today we have a series of steep hills that have many steps--you will be using your hiking poles a lot. About 8 miles today.

- Lunch today at Solva Boat Club.
- Dinner on your own.

Monday, May 26 – This is a relaxed day on your own to explore St. Davids. We will have a one hour cathedral tour and a day of leisure to investigate the shops, read a good book, or take a walk.

- Lunch on your own.
- Dinner together.

Tuesday, May 27 – - A day on Skomer Island, a British National Nature Reserve managed by the local Wildlife Trust where half a million seabirds breed annually. Among the inhabitants here are Manx shearwaters, guillemots, razorbills, kittiwakes, gulls and puffins! Skomer, 2 square miles in size, is a 20-minute boat trip from Martin’s Haven. We will take a bus from St. Davids to Martin’s Haven – 1 hour journey. Bring binoculars. 3-5 miles today.

- Packed lunch.
- Dinner together.

Wednesday, May 28 – A final day walking. Our aim today is St. Davids Head. A pre-historic burial chamber, Iron Age field system and hut circles are sites we will visit on this headland. Our walk back into St. Davids will be along the mile-long beach of White Sands Bay watching out for orchids and butterflies. Or, at White Sands Bay, you may take the Celtic Coast bus back into St Davids for last minute shopping. Today 6-7 miles.

- Packed lunch
- Farewell dinner in hotel dining room.

Thursday, May 29 - Breakfast and departure.

Please Note: The above schedule is subject to change due to weather or other circumstances beyond our control.

Flight and Airport Info

Getting to St. Davids—Fly directly from the U.S. to either London Heathrow. From Heathrow take the Heathrow Express train to London-Paddington Station (costs 16 Pounds one way or 30 Pounds return ticket – to Paddington and back) and takes about 20 minutes).

<https://www.heathrowexpress.com/>

The train from London Paddington to Haverfordwest takes about 5 hrs. If you want to break the train journey, you could spend the night in route in Cardiff. From Cardiff station, trains leave regularly for Haverfordwest, Wales. Cardiff to Haverfordwest takes about 2 hours. You can take a taxi (expensive!) or bus (# 411) from Haverfordwest train station to St. Davids (15 miles).

Regarding your return flight-you must arrive at the airport at least 3 hrs before flight departure to the US. So, it is not possible to take a flight to US on the same day you depart St. Davids.

Weather: Mild spring weather with some rain likely. Temperatures 60-75F day, and 45-55F night.
